(7) A decision of the Indiana economic development corporation, the office of tourism development, the department of environmental management, the tourist information and grant fund review committee, the Indiana development finance authority, the corporation for innovation development, or the lieutenant governor that concerns a grant, loan, bond, tax incentive, or financial guarantee.

(8) A decision to issue or not issue a complaint, summons, or similar accusation.

(9) A decision to initiate or not initiate an inspection, investigation, or other similar inquiry that will be conducted by the agency, another agency, a political subdivision, including a prosecuting attorney, a court, or another person.

(10) A decision concerning the conduct of an inspection, investigation, or other similar inquiry by an agency.

(11) The acquisition, leasing, or disposition of property or procurement of goods or services by contract.

(12) Determinations of the department of workforce development under IC 22-4-18-1(g)(1), IC 22-4-40, or IC 22-4-41.

(13) A decision under IC 9-30-12 of the bureau of motor vehicles to suspend or revoke a driver's license, a driver's permit, a vehicle title, or a vehicle registration of an individual who presents a dishonored check.

(14) An action of the department of financial institutions under IC 28-1-3.1 or a decision of the department of financial institutions to act under IC 28-1-3.1.

(15) A determination by the NVRA official under IC 3-7-11 concerning an alleged violation of the National Voter Registration Act of 1993 (42 U.S.C. 1973gg) or IC 3-7.

(16) Imposition of a civil penalty under IC 4-20.5-6-8 if the rules of the Indiana department of administration provide an administrative appeals process.

SECTION 2. IC 5-14-1.5-6.1, AS AMENDED BY P.L.4-2005, SECTION 28, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2005]: Sec. 6.1. (a) As used in this section, "public official" means a person:

- (1) who is a member of a governing body of a public agency; or
- (2) whose tenure and compensation are fixed by law and who executes an oath.

(b) Executive sessions may be held only in the following instances:

- (1) Where authorized by federal or state statute.
- (2) For discussion of strategy with respect to any of the following:

o p
y

- (A) Collective bargaining.
- (B) Initiation of litigation or litigation that is either pending or has been threatened specifically in writing.
- (C) The implementation of security systems.
- (D) The purchase or lease of real property by the governing body up to the time a contract or option to purchase or lease is executed by the parties.

However, all such strategy discussions must be necessary for competitive or bargaining reasons and may not include competitive or bargaining adversaries.

(3) For discussion of the assessment, design, and implementation of school safety and security measures, plans, and systems.

(4) Interviews with industrial or commercial prospects or agents of industrial or commercial prospects by the Indiana economic development corporation, the office of tourism development, the Indiana development finance authority, or economic development commissions.

(5) To receive information about and interview prospective employees.

(6) With respect to any individual over whom the governing body has jurisdiction:

(A) to receive information concerning the individual's alleged misconduct; and

(B) to discuss, before a determination, the individual's status as an employee, a student, or an independent contractor who is:

- (i) a physician; or
- (ii) a school bus driver.

(7) For discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute.

(8) To discuss before a placement decision an individual student's abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs.

(9) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process.

(10) When considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following:

- (A) Develop a list of prospective appointees.
- (B) Consider applications.
- (C) Make one (1) initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration.

y

Notwithstanding IC 5-14-3-4(b)(12), a governing body may release and shall make available for inspection and copying in accordance with IC 5-14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective appointees not initially excluded from further consideration. An initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration may not reduce the number of prospective appointees to fewer than three (3) unless there are fewer than three (3) prospective appointees. Interviews of prospective appointees must be conducted at a meeting that is open to the public.

(11) To train school board members with an outside consultant about the performance of the role of the members as public officials.

(12) To prepare or score examinations used in issuing licenses, certificates, permits, or registrations under IC 15-5-1.1 or IC 25.

(c) A final action must be taken at a meeting open to the public.

(d) Public notice of executive sessions must state the subject matter by specific reference to the enumerated instance or instances for which executive sessions may be held under subsection (b). The requirements stated in section 4 of this chapter for memoranda and minutes being made available to the public is modified as to executive sessions in that the memoranda and minutes must identify the subject matter considered by specific reference to the enumerated instance or instances for which public notice was given. The governing body shall certify by a statement in the memoranda and minutes of the governing body that no subject matter was discussed in the executive session other than the subject matter specified in the public notice.

(e) A governing body may not conduct an executive session during a meeting, except as otherwise permitted by applicable statute. A meeting may not be recessed and reconvened with the intent of circumventing this subsection.

SECTION 3. IC 5-14-3-4.8 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2005]: Sec. 4.8. (a) Records relating to negotiations between the office of tourism development and industrial, research, or commercial prospects are excepted from section 3 of this chapter at the discretion of the office of tourism development if the records are created while negotiations are in progress.

(b) Notwithstanding subsection (a), the terms of the final offer of public financial resources communicated by the office of tourism development to an industrial, a research, or a commercial prospect shall be available for inspection and copying under section 3 of this

y

chapter after negotiations with that prospect have terminated.

(c) When disclosing a final offer under subsection (b), the office of tourism development shall certify that the information being disclosed accurately and completely represents the terms of the final offer.

SECTION 4. IC 5-29 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW ARTICLE TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2005]:

ARTICLE 29. OFFICE OF TOURISM DEVELOPMENT

Chapter 1. Definitions

Sec. 1. The definitions set forth in this chapter apply throughout this article.

Sec. 2. "Agritourism" means the act of visiting a working farm or any agricultural, horticultural, or agribusiness operation for purposes of enjoyment, education, or active involvement in the activities of the farm or operation.

Sec. 3. "Council" refers to the Indiana tourism council established by IC 5-29-4-1.

Sec. 4. "Director" refers to the director of the office of tourism development appointed under IC 5-29-2-2.

Sec. 5. "Office" refers to the office of tourism development established by IC 5-29-2-1.

Chapter 2. Office of Tourism Development

Sec. 1. The office of tourism development is established.

Sec. 2. The lieutenant governor shall appoint the director of the office.

Sec. 3. (a) The director of the office serves at the pleasure of the lieutenant governor.

(b) The director is the executive and chief administrative officer of the office.

(c) The director is entitled to compensation in an amount to be fixed by the lieutenant governor with the approval of the budget agency.

Sec. 4. The director may hire employees as necessary in the performance of the office's functions. Salaries of personnel shall be fixed by the director, with the approval of the lieutenant governor and the budget agency.

Sec. 5. (a) The office may do the following:

- (1) Cooperate with federal, state, and local governments and agencies in the coordination of programs to promote tourism.
- (2) Receive and expend funds, grants, gifts, and contributions of money, property, labor, and other things of value from

y

public and private sources, including grants from agencies and instrumentalities of the state and the federal government.

The office:

- (A) may accept federal grants for providing planning assistance, making grants, or providing other services or functions necessary to political subdivisions, planning commissions, or other public or private organizations;
 - (B) shall administer these grants in accordance with the terms of the grants; and
 - (C) may contract with political subdivisions, planning commissions, or other public or private organizations to carry out the purposes for which the grants were made.
- (3) Request assistance, information, and advice regarding the duties and functions of the office from an officer, agent, or employee of the state. The head of any other state department or agency may assign any of the department's or agency's employees to the office on a temporary basis, or may direct a division or agency under the department's or agency's supervision and control to make a special study or survey requested by the director.
- (4) Disseminate information concerning and advertise or contract to advertise the cultural, recreational, quality of life, and tourism advantages of Indiana.
- (5) Plan, direct, and conduct research activities.

(b) The office shall assist in the development and promotion of Indiana's tourist resources, facilities, attractions, and activities.

Sec. 6. The director may establish advisory committees to advise the office on issues determined by the director. If the director establishes an advisory committee under this section, the advisory committee must:

- (1) have members that represent diverse geographic areas and economic sectors of Indiana; and
- (2) include members or representatives of tourism organizations.

An advisory committee member is not entitled to salary or per diem.

Sec. 7. The director may adopt rules under IC 4-22-2 to carry out this article.

Chapter 3. Tourism Information and Promotion Fund

Sec. 1. As used in this chapter, "fund" refers to the tourism information and promotion fund established by section 4 of this chapter.

Sec. 2. As used in this chapter, "promotion" includes the planning and conducting of information and advertising campaigns.

Sec. 3. As used in this chapter, "tourism group" means a private nonprofit corporation established under Indiana law whose purposes include the promotion of tourist resources and facilities in Indiana.

Sec. 4. (a) The tourism information and promotion fund is established within the state treasury. The fund shall be used for the purposes of this chapter.

(b) The fund consists of appropriations from the general assembly and gifts, donations, bequests, devises, and contributions received by the office.

(c) The office shall administer the fund. The following may be paid from money in the fund:

(1) Grants.

(2) Expenses of administering the fund.

(3) Nonrecurring administrative expenses incurred to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(d) The money in the fund at the end of a state fiscal year does not revert to the state general fund but remains in the fund.

(e) The treasurer of state shall invest the money in the fund not currently needed to meet the obligations of the fund in the same manner as other public funds may be invested. Interest that accrues from these investments shall be deposited in the state general fund.

Sec. 5. The office may make grants from the fund to tourism groups for the promotion of tourist resources and facilities in Indiana. However, each grant must be matched by funds provided by the applicant, and the office may not provide more than one-half (1/2) of the funds for a project. The matching funds required from the applicant may be provided by any source except other state funds.

Sec. 6. (a) The office shall establish guidelines for the application and approval of grants.

(b) The office may seek the recommendations from the council when making a determination to approve or reject a grant application.

Sec. 7. Promotional materials produced with the assistance of funds provided under this chapter must include the following statement: "Produced in cooperation with the Indiana Office of Tourism Development." Promotional materials must also include

y

a statement provided by the office.

Sec. 8. The office may adopt rules under IC 4-22-2 to carry out this chapter.

Chapter 4. Indiana Tourism Council

Sec. 1. The Indiana tourism council is established.

Sec. 2. The council consists of the following members:

- (1) The lieutenant governor.
- (2) Two (2) members of the senate, who may not be members of the same political party, appointed by the president pro tempore of the senate, for a term of one (1) year.

- (17) A member who lives in a rural community and is

y

interested in agritourism, appointed by the Indiana rural development council, for a term of one (1) year.

Sec. 3. (a) Eighteen (18) members of the council constitute a quorum.

(b) The affirmative votes of a majority of the members appointed to the council are required for the council to take action.

(c) The lieutenant governor shall serve as chairperson of the council.

(d) The council shall adopt written procedures to govern the transaction of business by the council.

(e) A member of the council who is not a state employee is not entitled to the minimum salary per diem provided by IC 4-10-11-2.1(b). The member is also not entitled to reimbursement for traveling expenses and other expenses actually incurred in connection with the member's duties.

Sec. 4. (a) The council shall do the following:

- (1) Assist in developing goals and objectives for the office.
- (2) Analyze the results and effectiveness of grants made by the office.
- (3) Build commitment and unity among tourism industry groups.
- (4) Create a forum for sharing talent, resources, and ideas regarding tourism.
- (5) Encourage public and private participation necessary for the promotion of tourism.
- (6) Make recommendations to the office regarding matters involving tourism.
- (7) Make recommendations concerning grants from the tourism information and promotion fund.
- (8) Make budget recommendations to the lieutenant governor.

(b) The council may establish advisory groups to make recommendations to the office on tourism research, development, and marketing.

Sec. 5. The council may receive funds from any source and may expend funds for activities necessary, convenient, or expedient to carry out the council's purposes.

Sec. 6. The office shall provide administrative services to the council, as directed by the lieutenant governor.

Sec. 7. The council shall submit an annual report to the governor and to the general assembly in an electronic format under IC 5-14-6 not later than November 1 each year.

SECTION 5. IC 6-1.1-43-1, AS AMENDED BY P.L.4-2005,

o
y

SECTION 49, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2005]: Sec. 1. This chapter applies to the following economic development incentive programs:

- (1) Grants and loans provided by the Indiana economic development corporation under IC 5-28 or the office of tourism development under IC 5-29.
- (2) Incentives provided in an economic revitalization area under IC 6-1.1-12.1.
- (3) Incentives provided under IC 6-3.1-13.
- (4) Incentives provided in an airport development zone under IC 8-22-3.5-14.

SECTION 6. IC 8-3-1-21.1, AS AMENDED BY P.L.4-2005, SECTION 114, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2005]: Sec. 21.1. (a) Upon receiving notice of intent to abandon railroad rights-of-way from any railroad company, the department shall, upon receipt, notify:

- (1) the county executives, county surveyors, and cities and towns of the counties affected;
- (2) the Indiana economic development corporation; ~~and~~
- (3) the office of tourism development; and
- ~~(3)~~ (4) the department of natural resources; of the notice.

(b) Within one (1) year of a final decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission permitting an abandonment of a railroad right-of-way, the railroad shall remove any crossing control device, railroad insignia, and rails on that part of the right-of-way that serves as a public highway and reconstruct that part of the highway so that it conforms to the standards of the contiguous roadway. The Indiana department of transportation or the county, city, or town department of highways having jurisdiction over the highway may restore the crossing if the unit:

- (1) adopts construction specifications for the project; and
- (2) enters into an agreement with the railroad concerning the project.

The cost of removing any crossing control device, railroad insignia, rails, or ties under this subsection must be paid by the railroad. The cost of reconstructing the highway surface on the right-of-way must be paid by the Indiana department of transportation or the county, city, or town department of highways having jurisdiction over the crossing.

(c) If a railroad fails to comply with subsection (b), the Indiana department of transportation or the county, city, or town department of highways having jurisdiction over the crossing may proceed with the

y

removal and reconstruction work. The cost of the removal and reconstruction shall be documented by the agency performing the work and charged to the railroad. Work by the agency may not proceed until at least sixty (60) days after the railroad is notified in writing of the agency's intention to undertake the work.

(d) This section does not apply to an abandoned railroad right-of-way on which service is to be reinstated or continued.

(e) As used in this section, "crossing control device" means any traffic control device installed by the railroad and described in the National Railroad Association's manual, Train Operations, Control and Signals Committee, Railroad-Highway Grade-Crossing Protection, Bulletin No. 7, as an appropriate traffic control device.

(f) Costs not paid by a railroad under subsection (b) may be added to the railroad's property tax statement of current and delinquent taxes and special assessments under IC 6-1.1-22-8.

(g) Whenever the Indiana department of transportation notifies the department of natural resources that a railroad intends to abandon a railroad right-of-way under this section, the department of natural resources shall make a study of the feasibility of converting the right-of-way for recreational purposes. The study must be completed within ninety (90) days after receiving the notice from the Indiana department of transportation. If the department of natural resources finds that recreational use is feasible, the department of natural resources shall urge the appropriate state and local authorities to acquire the right-of-way for recreational purposes.

SECTION 7. IC 8-21-9-12, AS AMENDED BY P.L.4-2005, SECTION 116, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2005]: Sec. 12. (a) The department has jurisdiction only over two (2) major new continental or intercontinental airport facilities designed and constructed to serve a part of Indiana or adjacent states.

(b) The department may designate the location and character of all airport facilities which the department may hold, own, or over which it is authorized to act and to regulate all matters related to the location and character of the airport facilities.

(c) The department may designate the location and establish, limit, and control points of ingress to and egress from any airport property.

(d) The department may lease to others for development or operation the parts of any airport or airport facility on terms and conditions as the department considers necessary.

(e) The department may make directly, or through hiring of expert consultants, investigations, and surveys of whatever nature, including,

o

but not limited to, studies of business conditions, freight rates, airport services, physical surveys of the conditions of structures, and the necessity for additional airports or for additional airport facilities for the development and improvement of commerce and for the more expeditious handling of commerce, and to make studies, surveys, and estimates as are necessary for the execution of its powers under this chapter.

(f) The department may make and enter into all contracts, undertakings, and agreements necessary or incidental to the performance of its duties and the execution of its powers under this chapter. When the cost of any such contract for construction, or for the purchase of equipment, materials or supplies, involves an expenditure of more than five thousand dollars ($5,000), the department shall make a written contract with the lowest and best bidder after advertisement for not less than two (2) consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in Marion County, Indiana, and in such other publications as the department shall determine. Such notice shall state the general character of the materials to be furnished, the place where plans and specifications therefor may be examined, and the time and place of receiving bids. Each bid shall contain the full name of every person or company interested in it and shall be accompanied by a sufficient bond or certified check on a solvent bank that if the bid is accepted a contract will be entered into and the performance of its proposal secured. The department may reject any and all bids. A bond with good and sufficient surety, as shall be approved by the department, shall be required of all contractors in an amount equal to at least fifty percent (50%) of the contract price conditioned upon the faithful performance of the contract.

(g) The department may fix and revise periodically and charge and collect equitable rates, fees, rentals, or other charges for the use of any airport facility or airport facilities under its control, which rates, fees, rentals, or other charges shall be in amounts reasonably related to the cost of providing and maintaining the particular airport facility or airport facilities for which these rates, fees, rentals, and other charges are established.

(h) The department may make application for, receive, and accept from any federal agency, grants for or in aid of the planning, construction, operating, or financing of any airport facility, and to receive and accept contributions from any source of either money, property, labor, or other things of value, to be held, used and applied for the purposes for which made, in each case on such terms and conditions as the department considers necessary or desirable. The

department may enter into and carry out contracts and agreements in connection with this subsection.

(i) The department may appear in its own behalf before boards, commissions, departments, or other agencies of the federal government or of any state or international conference and before committees of the Congress of the United States and the general assembly of Indiana in all matters relating to the designs, establishment, construction, extension, operations, improvements, repair, or maintenance of any airport or airport facility operated and maintained by the department under this chapter, and to appear before any federal or state agencies in matters relating to air rates, airport services and charges, differentials, discriminations, labor relations, trade practices, and all other matters affecting the physical development of and the business interest of the department and those it serves.

(j) The department may contract for the services of consulting engineers, architects, attorneys, accountants, construction and financial experts, and such other individuals as are necessary in its judgment. However, the employment of an attorney shall be subject to such approval of the attorney general as may be required by law.

(k) The department may do all things necessary and proper to promote and increase commerce within its territorial jurisdiction, including cooperation with civic, technical, professional, and business organizations and associations, the office of tourism development, and the Indiana economic development corporation.

(l) The department may establish and maintain a traffic bureau for the purpose of advising the department as to the airport's competitive economic position with other airports.

(m) The department may contract for the use of any license, process, or device, whether patented or not, which the department finds is necessary for the operation of any airport facility, and may permit the use thereof by any lessee on such terms and conditions as the department may determine. The cost of such license, process, or device may be included as part of the cost of the airport facility.

(n) The department may issue airport revenue bonds and airport revenue funding bonds.

(o) The department may do all acts and things necessary or proper to carry out the powers expressly granted in this chapter.

SECTION 8. IC 9-21-4-5 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2005]: Sec. 5. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), a person may not place or maintain upon a highway a traffic sign or signal bearing commercial advertising. A public authority may not permit the placement of a traffic sign or signal that

y

bears a commercial message.

(b) Under criteria to be jointly established by the Indiana department of transportation and the ~~department office of commerce,~~ tourism development, the Indiana department of transportation may authorize the posting of any of the following:

- (1) Limited tourist attraction signage.
- (2) Business signs on specific information panels on the interstate system of highways and other freeways.

All costs of manufacturing, installation, and maintenance to the Indiana department of transportation for a business sign posted under this subsection shall be paid by the business.

(c) A person may not place, maintain, or display a flashing, a rotating, or an alternating light, beacon, or other lighted device that:

- (1) is visible from a highway; and
- (2) may be mistaken for or confused with a traffic control device or for an authorized warning device on an emergency vehicle.

(d) This section does not prohibit the erection, upon private property adjacent to highways, of signs giving useful directional information and of a type that cannot be mistaken for official signs.
